

Agnes Mura, MA, MCC

Agnes Mura, MA, is a globally experienced Master Certified Coach (MCC) to senior executives, public boards, owners of closely held companies and emerging leaders. She has special expertise in coaching leaders through successful cultural transitions of all types, including changes in assignment, location or geographic reach, integration into new corporate or departmental cultures, and how to successfully shift the culture of a function or a department. Executives turn to her at the critical junctures in their career to strengthen skills (e.g. managing global virtual teams) or to vastly expand their leadership abilities (e.g. global emotional intelligence, matrix collaboration) in the face of sweeping challenges.

Ms. Mura is an experienced and globally focused leadership coach who inspires and develops Fortune 500 corporate executives from Europe to Latin America. Fluent in six languages, Agnes has also mediated among diverse peoples and cultures. She is currently coaching in English, Spanish and German – virtually, as well as in person.

Ms. Mura is a coach and partner to leaders who deal with the complexities, uncertainties and turbulences of today's global business world - while having to deliver ever better business results. She understands organizational (and national) cultures and how best to navigate them. Her profound humanity is coupled with a keen strategic eye for what's really going on, and a strong business sense from her 10 years as a finance executive. Her capacity to elicit authenticity in her clients helps leaders and key contributors achieve the personal and professional shifts that are required to deliver results... and to bring their teams along with them.

She holds a Masters Degree in philosophy and applied linguistics from Cologne University in Germany and a BA from Edinburgh University, Scotland.

Key Highlights:

As a Coach, Ms. Mura is credited with supporting:

- The CFO of a large public corporation to navigate a problematic triangular relationship with the CEO and key board members. At 4 months into the process, the chairman and the lead director expressed their renewed confidence in the whole management team, in time for the CFO to launch a critical and successful debt restructuring.

- A female Senior Partner in one of the nation's Big Four Accounting Firms to achieve a new function with global responsibilities and a seat on the executive committee and the firm's board, by strengthening her firm-wide strategic perspective, building credibility and connections through collaboration and sharpening delegation and mentoring skills.
- A senior executive in a global company repatriating from an assignment in Asia. Immediately took over a substantial regional responsibility in the US with minimal adjustment period, making a smooth and cost-effective transition for the company and quickly leveraging her experience to lead her region to top tier performance.
- A team of EVPs reporting to the CEO of a financial institution, to strengthen individual leadership, cohesion and strategic abilities in advance of the 2008-2009 financial meltdown; the CEO and the team are thus able to turn the business model into a new, sustainable direction.

As a Leadership Development program designer and Strategic Facilitator:

- A two-year leadership program for the top 75 executives of one of the top 3 Mexican banks, impacting succession and growth strategies.
- A two-year executive development program for a $10 billion Los Angeles based firm, designed and executed in coordination with USC's Marshall School of Business Executive Education division.
- A leadership development program, in parallel with IPADE, Mexico, for Nissan's top 25 executives.
- Ongoing faculty roles in global leadership programs for Novartis, Coca-Cola, Citi, Dell, Gilead Sciences and others.
- Strategic, scenario planning and team building retreats for numerous mid-size west-coast companies.
